

NSW Police Legacy Special Assistance Form

NSW Police Legacy Board of Management will consider applications from Police Legatees for special assistance. NSW Police Legacy acknowledges that when a person dies, their partner's life changes forever. This may include a change in the roles and responsibilities this person now fulfills.

A special assistance grant aims to assist with:

1. Education costs associated with a need to up-skill once a partner dies
2. Driving lesson costs or refresher lessons
3. Other appropriate expenses or costs associated with a change in roles and responsibilities
